An exhibition of objects from the Longyear Museum collections, selected and researched by students in ARTS / SOAN 250, Native Art of North America. The objects include baskets, beadwork, dolls, silver ornaments, utensils, and sculptures. The students will give brief gallery comments about their selections.