ELECTIONS

Ms. Gallagher brought forth one nominee, Timothy Mansfield, to serve a one-year term as Executive Secretary. A vote was unanimously supported. There were no nominations from the floor so nominations were closed and the final vote will be at the April meeting.

LEGAL COUNSEL’S REPORT
Mr. Michael Morrone, legal counsel, reported that the process for elections has been evaluated as fair and in accordance with the by-laws. Mr. Morrone also reported on his cooperation with the university accounting office, attorneys, and tax preparers on the 2011 IRS 990 tax forms.

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY’S REPORT
Mr. Timothy Mansfield, executive secretary, gave the following report.

- Real World ’12 attracted nearly 120 alumni and over 400 student registrants, a successful partnership with the Center for Career Services and the Class of 2012.

- Reunion 2012/Annual Meeting: May 31 – June 3. The Alumni Affairs Office has developed new package options for guests to consider when registering for Reunion. The packages offer flexible spending options for alumni and a built-in gift to Colgate, all at a lower rate than 2011.

- Summer on the Hill ’12: June 26 – 29, 2012. The third annual summer program will be less expensive than the first two years, and the schedule is one day less. However, the courses and faculty remain a distinct value for alumni.

- The “Engagement Metrics Project” will officially launch in July, 2012. This project includes data collection of the methods alumni engage with Colgate including volunteer service, event attendance, and financial donations.

- Jenna Webb ’02, Assistant Director of Alumni Affairs, reported on the 2011-2012 Presidential events with alumni. President Herbst will travel to fourteen new cities this year to meet with alumni and parents.

- Amber Vogt, Associate Director of Alumni Affairs, reported on the department signature programs from the fall semester (athletic tailgates, faculty lectures, etc).

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS
The Council’s work is ordinarily conducted through its committees’ meetings and General Session of the entire Council. This year, the Executive Committee chose instead to discuss five elements of the university’s proposed upcoming strategic planning process during the Council’s winter meeting. They included the Role of Technology in the University, Rightsizing the University, Student Diversity in the 21st Century, Globalization of Colgate, and the Architecture of the Athletics program.

EXECUTIVE SESSION
Mr. William Sweeney ’01, Chair, gave recommendations for the following slate of alumni awards during a closed session: Maroon Citation, Wm. Brian Little ’64 Alumni Award for Distinguished Service, The Ann Yao ’80 Memorial Young Alumni Award, Humanitarian Award, and Distinguished Teaching Award. The nominations were moved, seconded and unanimously approved without discussion.
Ms. Gallagher reminded those present that there was a process by which award recipients were informed and asked that confidentiality of the winners be kept until notified that the recipients had been formally notified and congratulated.
