Langel was named Colgate head coach in April 2011 and just completed his sixth season with the Raiders. Colgate this year finished 8-10 in the Patriot League, good for 6th place. It marked the sixth straight year Colgate has matched or beaten preseason expectations. With 93 percent of the teams scoring coming back next season, including Patriot League Rookie of the Year Will Rayman, the future is bright.

Colgate rewarded Langel with a five-year contract extension in March 2015, less than two weeks after the raiders completed their best season since 1996. Colgate finished second in the Patriot league standing and advanced to the conference semifinals. That season the Raiders won 12 Patriot League games for the first time in program history.

Langel etched his name in the Penn record books in several different categories. He is a member of the 1000 point club with 1,191 points in a Red and Blue uniform. He stands second all-time in Penn basketball history in three-pointers made in a game with eight, is eighth in three-pointers made in a season with 70, and fourth in career three pointers made with 201.

Upon graduation, Langel was drafted by Atlantic City of the USBL in 2000 and worked out in the Seattle SuperSonics camp. He then went overseas to play professionally in Europe, for Chene BC in Switzerland and ALM Evreux Basket in France Pro A.
