Native American Student Association Presents:

Brown Bag:
The True Story of Thanksgiving

Where: Room 110, Alumni Hall
When: Thursday, Nov. 21, 2013
Time: 11:30 am

Thanksgiving is a widely loved and accepted holiday in the United States that is meant for families to come together and remember what they are thankful for.

A panel of students will talk about the history of Thanksgiving and what it has come to mean in the public mind. A discussion will follow.

Lunch is provided.
