Welcome to Colgate University and the greater Hamilton/central New York communities. The following information may be useful as part of the transition process to the area, but bear in mind what is shared here is for reference only, and by no means an endorsement of specific businesses, products and/or services. This list also is not meant to be exhaustive or definitive. Please contact the Office of Equity and Diversity with comments, questions, concerns, additions and/or deletions.

Check out www.hamiltonny.com – this site has useful A-Z on the Village of Hamilton and the unique offerings in the region, including religious organizations, community events, local and regional news sources, various business connections, and more. Also, take a look at the Partnerships for Community Development website (www.hamiltonpcd.org) for additional worthwhile information. Still another website offering germane local details is www.hamilton-ny.gov.

ATMS

On-campus: An ATM (operated by NBT Bank) is available inside the O’Conner Campus Center, aka the “COOP”, downstairs next to the post office.

Off-campus: A drive-up ATM (also NBT Bank) is located outside of Tractor Supply Company (in the Madison Marketplace where Price Chopper is located) off of State Route 12B. There is also an ATM kiosk across from Dunkin Donuts on Utica Street. Another drive-up (-thru) ATM is also located on 40 Utica Street at the NBT Bank. Additional ATMs are around the Village of Hamilton as well, which you may see during your travels.

Childcare

The following site offers babysitting/childcare services by local individuals with varying hourly rates:
Chenango Nursery School, located at 59 Kendrick Avenue in Hamilton (315-824-1810) offers licensed early childcare program from 6 weeks to 5 years old. www.chenangonurseryschool.org

DINING

A number of restaurants are located in the Village offering a decent and eclectic mix. Colleagues and other community folks may have good suggestions too, as there are many good eats in the area.

DRIVER LICENSE

Please refer to the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles for information and application form for a driver license in the state (www.dmv.ny.gov). New York State requires new residents to have NY state licenses within 30 days of establishing state residency. New York State also has an enhanced driver license option, which allows the holder to use it at selected border crossings. An additional charge will be assessed for the enhanced license beyond the fees for a regular one. More information is available on the website.

Grocers and Liquor

Groceries and food goods can be purchased in town Hamilton Whole Foods (28 Broad Street; 315-824-2930), Price Chopper (1050 Madison Market Place; 315-824-6040), and Byrne Dairy (31 Utica Street; 315-824-1107). Right in town, there are two liquor stores: Village Wine & Spirits (27 Lebanon Street; 315-824-1740) and Cook’s Liquor Store (53 Utica Street; 315-824-2260). Many in the community also venture to DeWitt/Fayetteville (outside of Syracuse), where Wegmans is located (6789 East Genesee Street; 315-446-1180) – a “Whole Food”-type supermarket with fresh produce, organic items, prepared foods, kosher deli, and much much, more.

On Saturdays from May to November of each year, the Village of Hamilton hosts an open-air Farmer’s Market on the village green. Vendors sell local organic produce, meats and cheeses, jams and jellies, honey, butter, baked goods and hand-made crafts - just to name a few. This is a great place to meet local folks as well as friends and colleagues.

Syracuse and Utica are the two larger cities within 30 or so miles from Hamilton. In these cities and around the region, there are a number of ethnic markets offering specialty products. Depending on weather and traffic condition, the drive to Syracuse and Utica could take about an hour each way, and a number of interesting places can be found in between as well.

A special note regarding rental properties: While there are immediate openings throughout the year, the optimal time to search is around March and April, as more selections tend to open up at that time for June and later occupancy.
