SUBMISSION DEADLINE FOR THE DECEMBER ISSUE IS NOVEMBER 16.
This Veterans Day, Colgate extends its thanks to the men and women of the United States Armed Forces

Please join us in thanking Colgate’s employee veterans for their service and for their willingness to tell their stories.

Kelly Dempsey
Search & Rescue Aviation Electronics Technician/Navigator, Coast Guard Instructional Designer

The grit and determination I needed to get through the demanding physical training I did in the Coast Guard makes any situation I face in my work at Colgate that much easier.

Dan Esworthy
Intelligence Analyst, Army Operations Assistant, Registrar

Reflecting on my time in the service, I would say that time management, attention to detail, and a drive to work well with others all influence my position here at Colgate.

Brian Belden
Machinist Mate 2nd Class
Petty Officer, Navy
Foreperson, Millwright Shop

Anyone who has served their country in this capacity has spent time away from their family and friends. I’d like to thank Colgate for acknowledging the servicemen and women who have made that sacrifice.

Alan Glos, MA ’73
Captain, Air Force
Associate Dean for Administrative Advising

I spent most of my time in the Air Force working with officers who were also college students experiencing problems — this used my degree in psychology and was very similar to dean of students work at a civilian university.
Dan Gough
Lieutenant, Navy
Associate VP for Campus Safety
The kinship and bond that all of us feel who have served is hard to understand, but it’s clear here at Colgate.

Kristi Mangine
Sergeant E-5, U.S. Army
Cooley Science Library Supervisor
It doesn’t matter which branch we served in, it only takes 30 seconds for us to have a conversation; we’re a family.

Dan McCoach
Senior Chief Petty Officer, Navy
Architectural Trades Manager
My career was spent as a builder in the Navy Seabees. The construction training and work background I received in the military helped me get into the facilities department at Colgate.

Scott Phillips
Captain, Air Force
Assistant Director of Employer Relations
What I bring to Colgate from my military experience is knowing when to lead, when to follow, and how to find order in chaos.

Leialoha Mara
Technical Sergeant E-6, Army, Air Force
Administrative Assistant, Department of Philosophy, Linguistics
Colgate helps create our future fighter pilots, future generals, and future leaders. I am happy to support the Colgate mission.

Bob Thomas
Senior Airman E4, Air Force
Millwright
I was a troubleshooter on state-of-the-art aircraft. Here at Colgate, I am fortunate to be troubleshooting a state-of-the-art hockey arena.

New Hire Orientation

On October 30, the Human Resources Department hosted an all-day new hire orientation session for staff hired between April 2018 and October 2018. It was an opportunity for everyone to get acquainted with others at Colgate who they might not otherwise interact with as part of their typical workday. Participants learned more about members of the university cabinet, Colgate traditions, and policies/benefits that apply to them. In addition, there were many members of the campus community who were present sharing information regarding the work their respective areas are responsible for, the services and resources they provide to employees, and their perspectives as members of the Colgate and/or surrounding community.

Please take a moment to welcome our new employees and, better yet, extend an invitation for a cup of coffee or lunch!

Emergency Closing Policy

The university will make every effort to provide essential services to residential students, even in cases of extreme adverse weather or other emergencies; however, under extraordinary conditions, the university may limit operations as outlined in the Emergency Closing Policy.

It is extremely important for all employees to take time to signup for the Colgate RAVE Alert system to receive notifications should there be a university emergency. In the case of a delayed opening, closing, or campus emergency, notifications are sent out via the Colgate RAVE Alert system. Please sign-up for this service by going to the login page on the portal portal.colgate.edu, click on the RAVE Alert link, and use your network username and password. You are able to enter up to three email addresses, three mobile phone numbers, and three voice-only telephone numbers. In the case of a power failure, the university may not be able to provide updates by email, website notices, or media stations, so the Colgate RAVE Alert system is a critical way for you to receive emergency notifications.
