Native American Symposium:
“Native American Women as Educators and Cultural Teachers”
Organized by Michael Taylor, Seneca; Instructor, Native American Studies, Colgate University

Thursday, September 22

2:45-4:00 p.m. • 27 Persson Hall (Persson Auditorium)
Lecture: “Philosophies of Matrilineality: Gender and Haudenosaunee World View”
Freida Jacques, Onondaga Nation, Turtle Clan

4:00-4:30 p.m. • Longyear Museum of Anthropology, Alumni Hall, Second Floor
Reception and Exhibition: “Maya Indian Textiles and Identity”
Carol Ann Lorenz, Director, Longyear Museum of Anthropology, Colgate University

4:30-6:30 p.m. • 111 Alumni Hall
Panel Discussion: “Native American Women as Educators and Cultural Teachers”
Odie Brant Porter, Seneca Nation of Indians, Turtle Clan
Assistant Provost, Syracuse University
Chairperson, Seneca Nation Investment Management Board
JoAnne Powless, Mohawk;
Director, Onondaga Nation Language Management Board
Regina Jones, Oneida;
Program Coordinator, Multicultural Affairs Office, Syracuse University
Respondent: Wendy Geniusz, Ojibwe;
Dissertation Fellow in Native American Studies and Education, Colgate University

6:30 p.m. • Green Room, Frank Dining Hall
Dinner, for all participants, guests, and attendees