The Road Ahead: An Orientation for Colgate Parents
The start of the college experience is a transition time for both students AND their parents. What should parents expect for their first-year student, themselves, and from the university during this period of adjustment? While the students are unpacking and meeting roommates, this special program for parents provides an overview of the typical transition issues, offers constructive ways to be involved in the process, addresses common questions from parents, highlights first-semester events, and identifies valuable Colgate resources.

Attendance is required at all events marked with an asterisk (*).

*Lunch with FSEM Professors & Links

12:30—5 pm
*Individual Meetings with academic advisers Your FSEM professor is also your academic adviser. Advising appointments are scheduled during the FSEM class meeting at 9 am.

1 pm
Health Sciences Advising Meeting
This meeting is strongly recommended for all students interested in a career in the health professions. Topics will include course requirements, advising information and a general overview of health sciences at Colgate.

1 pm
Pre-Teaching Advising
Colgate offers very exciting and somewhat individualized social justice-focused teacher education programs at both undergraduate and graduate levels. If you are considering teaching after you graduate, you must meet New York State certification requirements. Each year students are able to graduate from Colgate certified to teach, but they must plan their schedule carefully in order to do so. Come learn how to begin this planning.

Attendance is required at all events marked with an asterisk (*).
FRIDAY  AUGUST 28

1:30 pm  Math Advising: Info on Calculus and Introductory Statistics
209 Lathrop Hall
Not sure which Calculus course to take? Planning on taking Introduction to Statistics at some point? First read the information on pages 17-18 of the registration booklet that you received over the summer. If you still have questions, this meeting is for you.

2 pm  Pre-Law Advising Session
111 Wynn Hall
For all students thinking about a career in law. Meet the Pre-Law Adviser and learn how to plan for success in reaching your goal of attending law school and becoming a lawyer.

2:30 pm  Modern and Classical Languages Advising
217 Lathrop Hall
The study of modern and classical languages and literatures is critical for understanding today’s world. Should you continue with the language you have already studied? Should you begin a new language? How can the study of foreign language and literature complement studies in other disciplines? Talk with classical and modern languages faculty about the many opportunities for language study at Colgate. Languages taught include Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Ancient Greek, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Latin, Russian, and Spanish.

Brehmer Theater
Dana Arts Building

*You Decide How often does sexual assault occur on a college campus? What types of decisions might help you stay safe and enjoy your social life at Colgate more? After reviewing some typical nightlife scenarios, join with a Colgate staff member to discuss how to have fun and protect yourself at the same time.

Group B
(Link Groups 131—158)
Love Auditorium
300 Olin Hall

*Life on the Hill Understanding the expectations, realities, and responsibilities of living in a residential college community is an important first step in maximizing your overall Colgate experience. Get to know some key people on campus and listen to the varying perspectives of current students and staff members on what it means to be a member of the Colgate family.

Group C
(Link Groups 160—199)
Golden Auditorium

Emergency Preparedness Training College campuses are not immune to crime, severe weather-related situations, and other emergency situations. It is important that students are familiar with basic procedures in the event of an emergency. Officers from Campus Safety will discuss the correct things to do (or not do) and where to go during an emergency.
Topics will include personal safety, fire safety, medical emergencies, evacuations and lock downs. Good planning and preparation makes for a safe and healthy campus!

MUSICAL OPPORTUNITIES

Colgate Chamber Players—Sign up in the Music Department (Dana Arts Center) or on door of 103 James Colby Colgate Hall. Chamber music can carry one credit for two semesters of participation; by permission. Course credit is possible only after playing a full semester. The Colgate Chamber Players perform major chamber works from around the world, in quartets, trios, quintets, etc. Students have opportunities to perform on and off campus with guest artists. A German tour is planned. Bring your instrument and be prepared to play.

Auditions for Colgate University Choral Ensembles—Auditions for the Colgate University Choral Ensembles will be held Monday, August 31 through Thursday, September 3 from 1-6 pm. The Women's Singers, Concert Choir, and Chamber Singers perform diverse musical selections in concert programs and at University functions throughout the year. Participation is open to all students, and academic credit is available for two semesters of participation. The audition process is simple and harmless—prior experience is not a prerequisite and it is not necessary to bring a prepared selection. All are encouraged to audition! Drop by Dana 106 to audition or to sign up in advance for a time slot. Please be prepared to discuss your availability for weekday afternoon/evening rehearsals. Contact James Niblock, Director of Choral and Vocal Activities, with questions at jniblock@mail.colgate.edu or ext. 7647.

Monday, August 31

Colgate University Libraries’ Orientation
The Libraries will host orientation discussions with FSEM groups the 2nd and 3rd weeks of classes. If you have questions concerning the Libraries’ resources or services, please feel free to drop by the Case Library Reference Desk (Level 3) or the Cooley Science Library (McGregory Hall), or contact us by phone, e-mail, chat or by appointment. Contact information is available at:
http://exlibris.colgate.edu/services/reference.html

Private Violin/Viola/Cello/Bass study—All string students should audition for lessons on Monday, August 31, at 6:30 pm in 103 James Colby Colgate Hall. Sign up in the Music Office in Dana Arts Center.

The Colgate University Orchestra is an excellent symphony orchestra composed of students and professional musicians, conducted by Professor Marietta Cheng. The full orchestra rehearses Wednesday evenings and performs two major concerts each semester. Orchestra offers one course credit for two semesters of participation, so wait to sign up for that credit in the second semester. Bring your instrument and come for a rehearsal, information and fun on Wednesday, September 2 at 7 pm in the Chapel.

Tuesday-Friday, September 1-4
The Colgate University Concert Jazz Ensemble—Eighteen-piece jazz band directed by faculty member Glenn Cashman.
The ensemble meets throughout the year in Ryan 212, Tuesday/Thursday, 4:10-5:30 pm and performs a wide range of big band literature that encompasses traditional and contemporary genres.
Must have both days free in this time slot. One credit for two semesters of participation; course credit possible for second semester after completing one semester. Call Glenn Cashman at extension 6688, email at GCashman, or stop by Ryan 224 for an audition time.
Auditions occur during the first week of classes each semester (FALL: September 1,2,3,4) and consist of sight-reading with an option to present a prepared piece in any style and/or improvise. A brief group meeting will occur on Thursday of the first week of classes (September 3) at 4:10 pm to get acquainted and to answer questions. Rehearsals will begin the second week of classes.

Wednesday, September 2
