Environmental Studies Core Courses: (4 Courses)

☐ ENST/PHIL 202, Environmental Ethics
☐ ENST/CORE 232, Environmental Justice
☐ ENST 390, Community-based Study of Environmental Issues
☐ ENST 490, Seminar in Environmental Studies

Interdisciplinary Course on the Environment (1 course)

☐ One full-credit course or two half-credit courses from the list of Interdisciplinary Courses Focusing on the Environment, available in the description of the Environmental Studies Major Concentration in the Catalogue:

Course: _______________________

Methods Course (1 course)

☐ One full credit from the following: BIOL 220, CORE 103, ECON 375, GEOG/EDUC/POSC/SOAN 225, GEOG 245, GEOL 203, HIST 200, PHIL 225, RELG 352

Course: _______________________

Courses Providing Analytical Perspectives in Environmental Studies (3 courses)

☐ One full-credit course, with lab if applicable, from the Earth Systems and Processes list available in the description of the Environmental Studies Major Concentration in the Catalogue:

Course: _______________________

☐ One full-credit course from the Social Science Investigations of Environmental Issues list available in the description of the Environmental Studies Major Concentration in the Catalogue:

Course: _______________________

☐ One full-credit course from the Humanities Courses Related to the Environment list available in the description of the Environmental Studies Major Concentration in the Catalogue:

Course: _______________________

Focus in a Particular Field of Study

Field: _______________________

Courses to satisfy the requirement (no more than one at the introductory level)

Course: _______________________
Course: _______________________
Course: _______________________
Advanced Course: _______________________

If waived, minor or major: ________________ (Must be approved by advisor.)

---

1 Please see the Colgate Catalogue for detailed and current information about these requirements. Some details, such as minimum required grades, have been omitted from this checklist for brevity.