Full schedule of events:

Monday, January 17, 2011: MLK Day

MLK Day Celebration Opening: “Speaking Out Through the Arts”
Dr. Jeffrey Herbst, President, will open and students to perform in honor of MLK Day
12:00 @ the Chapel

Workshops-
1:00 – 2:00 PM
Workshop A: “A Time of Reconsideration: MLK, Obama and America’s Future”
Location: ALANA Cultural Center, Multi-Purpose Room
Facilitated by: Dr. Pete Banner-Haley, Professor of History & African American Studies

Workshop B: “MLK’s and Gandhi’s Peaceful Paths to Freedom”
Location: ALANA Cultural Center, Lounge
Facilitated by: Noor Khan, Assistant Professor of History & Keenan Grenell, Vice President and Dean of Diversity, Associate Professor of Africana and Latin American Studies

4:00 – 5:00 PM
Workshop C: Working with Reverend King and Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel: “Spiritual Audacity and Moral Grandeur”
Location: Saperstein Jewish Center

Workshop D: Film Screening- Brother Outsider: The Life of Bayard Rustin
This film chronicles the life of civil rights activist and organizer of the 1963 March on Washington, Bayard Rustin, and explores the ways his gay identity influenced his role in the Civil Rights Movement.
Location: ALANA Cultural Center
Facilitated by: Ken Valente, Professor of Mathematics & University Studies, Chair of First-Year Seminar, Global Engagements, and Core Distinction Programs, Director of LGBTQ Studies

Dinner and Talk with Rev. Fernandez: “Reverend King and the Vietnam War”
Facilitated by: Steven Nathan, Associate University Chaplain, Director of Jewish Life
5:30-7:00PM @ Merrill House

Tuesday, January 18

WMST/ALST Brown Bag: “We May Have All Come On Different Ships, But We’re In The Same Boat Now,” Faculty & Staff Perspectives on Diversity
Panel Moderator: Charlotte Johnson, Vice President and Dean of the College
Panel: Ken Valente, Professor of Mathematics and University Studies; Chair of First-Year Seminar, Global Engagements, and Core Distinction Programs; Director of LGBTQ Studies, Helene Julien, Associate Professor of French and Women's Studies; Academic Director of OUS, Stanley Brubaker, Professor of Political Science; Director of the Politics, Philosophy, and Economics Institute, Nisha Thapliyal, Assistant Professor of Educational Studies, Pamela
Thursday, January 20

He will be speaking on Quality Public School Education as a Constitutional Right. Robert P. (Bob) Moses resides in Boston, Massachusetts, with his wife, Dr. Janet Moses, M.D. They have four children. Bob Moses was born and raised in Harlem, NY, and received his B.A. from Hamilton College in 1956. In 1957, he received a Masters Degree in Philosophy from Harvard University and he taught middle school mathematics at the Horace Mann School in New York City from 1958-1961. In his young adult life, Dr. Moses was director of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee's (SNCC) Mississippi project 1961-1964, directed the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO) 1962-64, and was a pivotal organizer for the Mississippi Summer Project of 1964, and was instrumental in the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (MFDP), which challenged the Mississippi regulars at the 1964 Democratic Convention. Moses worked for the Tanzanian Ministry of Education 1969-76, teaching mathematics at the Samé School. He used a MacArthur Foundation Fellowship (1982-87) to found the Algebra Project, which uses mathematics as an organizing tool to guarantee quality public school education for all students. The Algebra Project has received support from the National Science Foundation and numerous philanthropies and individuals. Moses also has received several honorary doctorate degrees, including Harvard, Princeton, University of Michigan, and is the recipient of numerous awards.

7pm @ Chapel

Sunday, January 23

Syracuse University Dinner
Dinner for students, faculty and staff. For reservations and more information contact ALANA.
4pm - 8pm @ Ernie Davis Legacy/Carrier Dome in Syracuse

Wednesday, January 26

Movie Showing: For Colored Girls
Admission: $3! "For Colored Girls" weaves together the stories of nine different women - Jo, Tangie, Crystal, Gilda, Kelly, Juanita, Yasmine, Nyla and Alice - as they move into and out of one another's existences; some are well known to one another, others are as yet strangers. Crises, heartbreaks and crimes will ultimately bring these nine women fully into the same orbit where they will find commonality and understanding. Each will speak her truth as never before. And each will know that she is complete as a human being, glorious and divine in all her colors.
7pm @ Hamilton Movie Theater (Sponsors: ALANA, ALST & WMST)

Thursday, January 27
Reflecting on the Movie "For Colored Girls"
Brown Bag discussion of the film shown Wednesday night. Lunch Provided
11:30am @ Center for Women's Studies (Sponsored by: ALST, WMST, SORT & BSU)

Friday, January 28

MLK Afternoon of Service (COVE)
Colgate University’s Center for Outreach, Volunteerism, and Education (COVE) is joining the national commemoration of civil rights leader Martin Luther King, Jr.’s legacy by hosting the second annual MLK Afternoon of Service. Colgate’s MLK Afternoon of Service hopes to honor Dr. King’s teachings of citizenship and service and recognize the role they play in strengthening communities. The aim of our locally-focused afternoon of service is to bring people of various ages and backgrounds together to move our local community and nation closer to the “Beloved Community” that Dr. King envisioned.
12:30pm- 5:30pm @ various local community organizations