All Brown Bags are held Fridays at 12:15 PM in the ALANA Cultural Center. Lunch is catered by Hamilton Whole Foods.

Sept. 4    “Ecological Endeavors in the Amazon”
           Charles A. Mango, M.D.
           President of the Amazon Yarapa River Lodge

Oct. 9     “Galapagos Islands: The Human Relationship with Nature”
           John Pumilio
           Sustainability Coordinator, Colgate

Oct. 23    “Earth’s Life-Sustaining Buffers”
           Peter Black, Ph.D.
           Professor Emeritus, SUNY ESF

Oct. 30    “National Security and Land Use Regulation: Preparing for ‘Disaster Environmentalism’”
           Charles Geisler, Ph.D.
           Professor of Development Sociology, Cornell
Nov. 6  “Worthiness to Live on the Planet: A Moral Problem of the Sixth Mass Extinction”
    Jeremy Bendik-Keymer, Ph.D.
    Associate Professor of Philosophy, Lemoyne

Nov. 13  “Watery Worlds: Power, Politics, and Socio-Ecological Transformations in South Asia”
    Farhana Sultana, Ph.D.
    Assistant Professor of Geography, SU

Nov. 20  “Getting From ‘Here’ to ‘There’: Understanding the Graduate School Process”
    Kevin Borden, Ph.D.
    Andrew W. Mellon Postdoctoral Fellow in Environmental Studies, Colgate

Dec. 4  “Environmental Justice and Aluminum Smelters in Trinidad and Tobago”
    April K. Baptiste, Ph.D.
    Assistant Professor, Environmental Studies Program, Colgate