EVENTS
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 20

4:30 PM–5:30 PM  LIVING WRITERS GUEST: PATTI SMITH, AUTHOR OF JUST KIDS
Colgate Memorial Chapel
Just Kids, Patti Smith’s memoir of New York City and Robert Mapplethorpe, won the National Book Award. Critics regard her 1975 debut album, Horses, as one of the best of all time, and she is a Rock & Roll Hall of Fame inductee. Her name appears on Time’s list of the 100 most influential people in the world as well as Rolling Stone’s list of the 100 greatest artists. Smith’s other books include Wish, Balek, Coral Sea, M Train, and, most recently, Devon, an intimate account of her own creative process. Just Kids is currently being developed into a TV series for Showtime.

1:00 PM–5:00 PM  UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES HISTORICAL SHOWCASE
Case-Geyer Library, Batza Room (606)
Join the Special Collections and University Archives department for a showcase of materials from across Colgate’s 200-year history, including the original record book that documents the 1817 meeting of the institution’s founders.

1:30 PM–2:00 PM  JUMMAH
Colgate Memorial Chapel, Judd Chapel
Join the Muslim Student Association for afternoon Jummah prayer.

3:00 PM–4:00 PM  COLGATE IN THE COMMUNITY – COVE OPEN HOUSE
109 Lathrop, COVE Lounge
Drop in to learn more about volunteer work Colgate students are doing in the community. There will be a small service project available arranged by Do Random Acts of Kindness. Snacks and refreshments will be provided.

3:00 PM–5:00 PM  OFF-CAMPUS STUDY OPEN HOUSE
101 McGregory, Center for International Programs
A majority of Colgate undergraduates study off campus. Meet our staff and learn about the many academic options, lengths of study, financial aid opportunities, and destinations that students can choose from. We will provide a short presentation followed by conversation about these exciting opportunities.

4:00 PM–5:00 PM  CURATORIAL TOUR OF EMBODIED
Picker Art Gallery, 2nd floor, Dana Arts Center
Join a tour and discussion of the themes and concepts underlying the artworks in Embodied, an exhibition that explores how artists have engaged with the body as subject and as metaphor, and features work from the Picker Art Gallery’s permanent collection.

4:30 PM–5:30 PM  BICENTENNIAL PROVOST AND DEAN OF THE FACULTY EVENT FEATURING DR. JANE PINCHIN: ENTER WOMEN AT COLGATE
Persson 27 Auditorium
Jane Lagoudis Pinchin, 2018 honorary degree recipient; former interim president; former provost and dean of the faculty; and Thomas A. Bartlett Chair and Professor of English emerita at Colgate, will be speaking about the impact of women who entered as students and faculty from the 1970s on, and how they shaped Colgate. Pinchin will be joined in the conversation by Professor of History Jill Harun and Provost and Dean of the Faculty Tracey Hucks ’97, MA’90.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

9:00 AM–9:00 PM  WELCOME CENTER
Donovan’s Pub, James C. Colgate Student Union
Stop in when you arrive and pick up your printed schedule and preordered football tickets, sign the bicentennial book, and ask any questions you may have about the weekend.

10:30 AM–4:30 PM  CLIFFORD GALLERY EXHIBITION: THE HILL ENVISIONED
Little Hall 101, Clifford Gallery
Colgate’s setting — its extraordinary combination of our Hill and our expansive lower park — has long been one of its greatest assets. This exhibition will show how architects and planners have helped us imprint our aspirations on this special place.

10:30 AM–1:30 PM  SHAW WELLNESS MEET AND GREET
Shaw Wellness Institute, 113 Broad
Come meet the new staff at the Shaw Wellness Institute and help us redecorate. Students and families are welcome to drop by the Wellness Institute and let their creative juices flow, assisting with designing colorful decor for the lounge, creating a mission and vision statement, and participating in a DIY stress-relieving activity. Refreshments will be served, and there will be a raffle to win prizes.

4:30 PM–5:30 PM  CLIFFORD GALLERY RECEPTION
1st Floor Lobby, Little Hall
Please join the Art & Art History Department faculty for a reception and viewing of the Clifford Gallery exhibition, “The Hill Envisioned: What Might Have Been — What Might Yet Be.” This exhibition, a study of how Colgate has shaped the Hill and its surroundings, features a selection of campus architectural and landscape plans, beginning with those by F.L. Olmsted, the designer of Central Park and the foremost landscape architect of his day. Robert McVaugh, Professor in the Art & Art History and Architecture department, will be on hand to discuss the past and future of Colgate’s campus.

4:30 PM–5:30 PM  BICENTENNIAL PROVOST AND DEAN OF THE FACULTY EVENT FEATURING DR. JANE PINCHIN: ENTER WOMEN AT COLGATE
Persson 27 Auditorium
Jane Lagoudis Pinchin, 2018 honorary degree recipient; former interim president; former provost and dean of the faculty; and Thomas A. Bartlett Chair and Professor of English emerita at Colgate, will be speaking about the impact of women who entered as students and faculty from the 1970s on, and how they shaped Colgate. Pinchin will be joined in the conversation by Professor of History Jill Harun and Provost and Dean of the Faculty Tracey Hucks ’97, MA’90.
8:30 AM–10:00 AM  CHINESE STUDIES BREAKFAST RECEPTION
The Ho Chinese Studies Center, Lawrence 103
We welcome families and students to start their day with a light breakfast while learning about our Chinese program and upcoming semester abroad in Shanghai.

8:30 AM–10:00 AM  JAPANESE STUDIES BREAKFAST RECEPTION & JAPAN STUDY GROUP INFORMATION SESSION
The Japan Center, Lawrence 107
We welcome families and students to start their day with a light breakfast while learning about our Japanese program and upcoming Japan Study Group.

9:00 AM–NOON  WELCOME CENTER
Donovan’s Pub, James C. Colgate Student Union
Stop in when you arrive and pick up your printed schedule, sign the Bicentennial book, and ask questions about the weekend.

9:30 AM–12:30 PM  SATURDAYS@COLGATE: ADMISSION INFORMATION SESSION AND CAMPUS TOUR
James B. Colgate Hall, Hurwitz Admission Center
The Office of Admission welcomes high school students and their families to campus for information sessions and campus tours on Saturday mornings throughout the fall. During these Saturday programs, visitors hear from a member of the admission staff and current students about Colgate’s academic signatures, campus life, outcomes, and the admission and financial aid process.

10:00 AM–11:00 AM  COFFEE WITH THE CURATORS
212 Alumni Hall
Discussion of the themes and development of the community-driven Not a Costume exhibition, which features contemporary indigenous fashion of the Western Hemisphere, including objects on loan from Colgate community members.

10:00 AM–11:00 AM  ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT RECEPTION ON THE BRIDGE
On the bridge in Persson Hall
Students and families are welcome to stop by for some refreshments and meet members of the economics department at the location of one of the best views on campus.
10:00 AM–1:00 PM  BECOMING COLGATE: EXPLORE COLGATE HISTORY
Olin Hall, Love Auditorium
Jim Smith ’70, author of Becoming Colgate, Jason Petrolis, former Bicentennial fellow; and other guests will explore Colgate history in the first of a series of nationwide Bicentennial Tour events.

10:00 AM–1:00 PM  BENTON HALL OPEN HOUSE
Benton Hall
Career Services, Thought Into Action, and the Office of National Fellowships and Scholarships are proud to welcome you to Colgate’s newest facility, Benton Hall. Meet our team and learn how your student can engage with these important resources to launch into the professional world. Light refreshments will be served.

10:00 AM–NOON  MIST RECEPTION
Keck Center Lounge, Lawrence Hall
Students and their families are welcome to drop by, meet the faculty, and learn more about the Middle Eastern and Islamic Studies program. Refreshments will be served.

10:00 AM–NOON  FREIBURG STUDY GROUP PRESENTATION
305 Lawrence Hall
Enjoy a presentation on the Freiburg Study Group by students and faculty.

10:00 AM–NOON  RECEPTION HOSTED BY THE NATURAL SCIENCES AND MATHEMATICS
DIVISION
Cunniff Commons, Ho Science Center Atrium
Come to the beautiful Ho Interdisciplinary Science Center for an informal visit with faculty and staff affiliated with Natural Sciences, Environmental Studies, and the Geography department. Reception will begin in the atrium, where you will find signs directing you to meet-and-greets at various sites in the building. The Linsley Geology Museum will be open and shows will be playing throughout the day and evening in the Ho Tung Visualization Laboratory, also located in the Ho Science Center.

11:00 AM–NOON  RELIGION DEPARTMENT FAMILY WEEKEND RECEPTION
304 Lawrence Hall
We warmly invite religion majors, religion minors, and students in our current religion courses to bring their families and join faculty from the Department of Religion for coffee, pastries, and conversation.

11:00 AM–1:00 PM  BICENTENNIAL TAILGATE
Crown Field at Andy Kerr Stadium, Practice Field Behind Visitor’s Stand Come one, come all. Students, families, alumni, faculty, staff, and fans of the Colgate Raiders are invited to enjoy a tailgate before the football team kicks off against Lafayette. Catering will be provided by Ray Brothers BBQ and Chartwells. Homecoming t-shirts and other Bicentennial giveaways available, while supplies last. Pick up your preordered football tickets at the giveaways tent.

11:00 AM–5:00 PM  EXTENDED MUSEUM HOURS
Picker Art Gallery, 2nd floor, Dana Arts Center
To celebrate Family Weekend, Homecoming, and Colgate’s Bicentennial kickoff, the Picker Art Gallery will open an hour early on Saturday and Sunday.

11:00 AM–1:00 PM  DEPARTMENT OF THE CLASSICS RECEPTION
Classics Center, 112-114 Lawrence Hall
Students and their families are welcome to drop by, meet the staff, and learn more about our programs. Light refreshments will be provided.

11:00 AM–1:00 PM  GERMAN DEPARTMENT LUNCHEON
115-116 Lawrence Hall
Luncheon for German students and their families.

11:00 AM–3:00 PM  HORA DE FAMILIA
49 Broad Street
An opportunity for the Latinx community, their families, and anyone else who is interested to come eat and listen to faculty and student guest speakers as they share their culture and experiences.

12:00 PM–1:00 PM  COLGATE FOOTBALL VS. LAFAYETTE
Crown Field at Andy Kerr Stadium
Home Patriot League football game against Lafayette. For tickets, please visit gocolgateraiders.com/tickets. Join us for a photograph on Andy Kerr Field at halftime as members of the Colgate community gather to form a Bicentennial C.
9:00 AM – 10:00 AM  CATHOLIC MASS
Colgate Memorial Chapel
Students and their families are invited to join the Newman Community for Mass.

10:00 AM – 11:00 AM  FAMILY WEEKEND BAGEL BRUNCH
Saperstein Jewish Center
This Bicentennial bagel brunch will celebrate the publication of the new history of Jewish life at Colgate, Repression, Re-invention, and Rugelach: A History of Jews at Colgate (Colgate University Press, 2018). Three of the student authors will be present, and copies of the book will be available for purchase.

1:00 PM – 5:00 PM  CLIFFORD GALLERY EXHIBITION: THE HILL ENVISIONED
Little Hall 101, Clifford Gallery
Colgate’s setting — its extraordinary combination of our Hill and our expansive lower park — has long been one of its greatest assets. This exhibition will show how architects and planners have helped us imprint our aspirations on this special place.

2:00 PM – 4:00 PM  COLGATE DEBATE SOCIETY SHOWCASE
207 Lathrop
Come see Colgate’s best debaters face off in an intense discussion. Debaters from all kinds of majors and backgrounds will put on a public exhibition debate in British Parliamentary, the most popular format of international debate. Audiences will get to choose between three different debate topics and watch their classmates duke it out in a battle for first place.

2:00 PM – 4:00 PM  CHAPEL HOUSE OPEN HOUSE
Chapel House
Students and families are welcome to drop in, learn about Chapel House, and receive a tour. Refreshments and drinks are provided. Tours will be provided by Program Coordinator, Rodney J. Aognant ’14, and Chapel House Director Steven Kepnes.

3:00 PM – 3:30 PM  WILDERNESS ADVENTURE SLIDESHOW
Golden Auditorium, Little Hall
Participants from Wilderness Adventure 2018 and their families are invited to view the slideshow of trip photos and reconnect with other participants and leaders.
