

Ordering Your Books

If you place your textbook order online by August 16th, we will deliver to your bedroom for FREE before you arrive. When ordering, please include your Colgate residence building and room number and choose "textbook delivery".

You can also arrange to pick up your textbook order at the Colgate Bookstore by choosing "textbook in-store pickup". Your books will be boxed and waiting for you at the bookstore when you arrive. Please allow 24 - 48 hours to pass after placing your order before picking up your books.

Please note, we cannot ship textbooks to the mailroom.

If you are a financial aid recipient and need assistance purchasing your books, please contact stuaccounts@colgate.edu to discuss options to utilize your financial aid to purchase your textbooks.

Textbook Tips

- Rent textbooks when possible. Renting can save up to 55%, but be aware of return deadlines.
- The Colgate Bookstore cares about your semester budget so we offer very competitive pricing - check our prices against other online booksellers before making your choices.
- Order online. Order your textbooks on our website and pick them up at the bookstore or have them delivered to your room on campus.

Rentals

A large selection of new and used rental textbooks will be available. Please note that not all textbooks are eligible to be rented. You may rent textbooks when you place your online order.

How To Order

To order your textbooks online, log in to the University's portal. Once there, click on the "Student Toolbox" tab at the top of the page. Then, you will see a "Student Course Books" box on the right-hand side of the page. In this box, you will see a listing of all the courses in which you are enrolled. Click on the "Get your books" box. You will be able to select from our stock of new, used, and rental textbooks, then checkout through our secure order system.

This system will remain available for your use throughout the semester.

Parents: If purchasing books for your student, be sure to use the student name as the ship-to name on your order, to avoid confusion at pick-up time.

Textbook Refunds: August 23 - September 5, 2023

Refunds will only be given if you have dropped a course.

The bookstore will provide textbook refunds Wednesday, August 23rd - Wednesday, September 5th. There will be no refunds given after September 5th. All merchandise must be in original condition. All shrink-wrapped merchandise must be unopened.
